

The Hero's Journey

An adventurous path
to power and vision

Desire & safety

In every woman and in every man there is a part, which wants to make something out of one's life, searching for change and further development. And there is another part standing in one's own way. This part protects things as they have always been like (status quo) and is sabotaging anything new.

These two parts give a signal especially then when a transition into a new life situation comes up.

Is the conflict between desire and anxiety not solved, paralysis, listlessness and discontent will result.

Authentic and in their own sense successful people have learned, to accept and to integrate their adventurous and their protective part.

Hero & Demon of resistance

This basic human conflict is mirrored in myths of the hero and in magical fairy-tales all over the planet. The director, actor and Gestalt therapist Paul Rebillot designed a process of personality development out of that: the Hero's journey.

In this process we support every participant to work out these two conflicting parts of personality, to embody them as "hero" and

"demon of resistance" and to confront them with each other.

Did this confrontation result in the decision for an agreement in the interest of both sides, the path into the "land of the unknown" is opening up.

Exceptional experiences ("miracles"), tests and the "reward" of the journey are waiting here.

Reaching the source of life vision

The hero's journey training offers the chance to come in contact again with those buried inner layers of our person, in which we may discover new targets and get on to the track of our life purpose.

The way there is not simple, it needs the upright readiness to confront oneself with oneself and with own inner resistances.

This teaches us to design our journey through life more purposefully and livelier. This contributes to health considerably as well.

For whom?

Doing what you are told is not changing the world. To discover own resources and an inner source of sense and to follow its vision: this is empowered by the Hero's journey training.

Counsellors and therapists accompany people in crisis transitions. Activists in cultural, artistic and social fields support people to unfold their inner resources and creativity.

Everybody feeling resonance with these targets will benefit from this training.

Paul Rebillot

(1931-2010) was a famous director and teacher of theatre art in San Francisco. A deep emotional and spiritual crisis brought him in touch with his vision. Based on this experience, his education as Gestalt therapist, his experience with healing forms of theatre and with Joseph Campbell's mythological studies ("A hero with a thousand faces") he designed the Hero's Journey training and published it in his book "The call to adventure: bringing the hero's journey to daily life" (1993). The famous psychiatrist Stan Grof praised this training as precise description of the 'landscape' of a "transformative crisis". Paul worked for decades as workshop guide, therapist and teacher at the Californian Esalen Institute and other centres in Europe.

Adventure Life

was founded 2007 by participants of a Hero's Journey in Austria. It is an European network with the target to spread the HJ as a path of initiation and community building.

It has members in Austria, Czech Rep., Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain and Germany. It forms a self-organizing project of educating HJ guides, reflecting its practice and condensing its reflexions into common theory construction. Often in cooperation with EU programmes like Youth in Action and Erasmus+ AL organized HJ trainings 2008 and 2016 in AT; 2012 in CZ and IT; 2013 in SK; 2018 in ES and facilitator trainings 2009 and 2014-2017 in AT.

The association AL follows the motto "it needs community to grow up and to live the adventure" among people of any age, who want to follow the path of adventure and desire.

AL activists like Florian Tilzer, Jitka Marelová, Madlen Komarová and Patrik Krebs spread out HJ in Czech Republic and in Slovakia:

Czech Republic

After a first granted HJ training 2012, AL was invited 2015 by the faculty of philosophy in Palacký University Olomouc to take part in the "Common Space" conference with a HJ training, a workshop and a lecture.

2015 workshop "Hero's Journey in Tarot" (HW & MW) and 2016 "Inanna" (HW & Martina Bartová) in Prague's Rybalka seminar centre.

In winter 2015/2016 the AL activists Jitka Marelová (Červená) and Lukáš Kučera organized and guided a HJ process in Prague in the form of 6 evening sessions.

Divadlo bez domova (Theatre with no home) is a NGO in Bratislava. For more than 12 years it runs a theatre company, where the actors and actresses are homeless and other disadvantaged or marginalised people of different age. For 12 years it organises the international festival of homeless theatres ERROR - the only theatre festival of that kind in Europe.

Dbd is also active in the field of non-formal education for professionals and activists. Thus it came in close contact with Adventure Life and Paul Rebillot's Hero's journey. This cooperation led to organising a first Hero's journey training in Slovakia 2013, a lecture and a theatre presentation of HJ in the ERROR Festival 2016 and to developing an international project HIT – Heroes of Inclusion and Transformation, which is granted by Erasmus+ and currently being implemented by 6 Euro-pean associations. <http://www.divadlobezdomova.sk>
